

Fees for New Members

(Membership Fees Payable From August 2026)

There are two fees payable.

Australian Bowhunters Association (ABA): Joining the ABA is a prerequisite for joining Darling Downs Field Archers (DDFA). This fee includes a Public Liability Insurance Policy, which covers you while you are doing any legal activity under the banner of the ABA, either legitimate hunting or on an ABA accredited archery range.

Information about the ABA fees can be found on the ABA website.

Darling Downs Field Archers: This fee contributes to the costs of operating the club.

For new members, the fee payable depends on the month you join.
